III. Personnel

The list of personnel being recommended for approval will be emailed to all board members on the afternoon of Friday, July 29, and a hard copy will be provided at the special session board meeting. This will allow additional time for recommendations to be presented, with the intent being to fill as many positions as possible at this meeting in an effort to complete staffing prior to the first day of school.

IV. CCS School Board Policy Technical Revisions

Included in the board packet are several technical revisions of board policies that are recommended by Neola. Neola has attorneys who monitor new laws and make recommended revisions to existing Neola policies. Since these are only technical revisions, only one reading is necessary. Your approval of the revisions is recommended.
